King Arthur Review

Complete each of the questions on this handout. Answer each question completely. If the work is done in class, then you may work with up to two partners. You will need a textbook and notes to complete the questions. Go to the web site to find links to the stories.

"The Crowning of Arthur"

On Line Version: (Book 1 Chapters 1-8).

Read "The Marriage of Arthur" (Handout.)

Note for the Online version: Read Book 3 Chapter I, Chapter II, and Chapter XV.

Read "The Adventures of Sir Launcelot"

On-line version in Book 6 chapters i-ix. It does take a while to download, so be patient!

Read "Le Morte de Arthur"

On Line Version: (Book 21 Chapters I-VII). It does take a while to download, so be patient!

Part A: Review the elements of chivalry and the heroic tradition in your notes. Then for each of the legends that we have read, identify two examples of chivalry or the heroic tradition. State the heroic tradition or element of chivalry that you found, provide a 1-2 sentence summary of the event, and explain how the event demonstrates the trait you have chosen.

Example: (from "The Marriage of King Arthur")

Chivalry/Heroic Tradition: A Knight must be loyal to his lady love

Summary of event: Merlin offers Arthur an opportunity to marry a woman other than Guenevere, but Arthur refuses to look at another woman.

Connection: Arthur's refusal to consider other women for marriage depicts him as being loyal to the woman he loves.
